ABOUT VACANT PULPITS.

At the Presbyterian general assembly which is now in session in New York, a report was submitted showing that over five hundred pulpits were vacant in the large synods of half a dozen states. The report which is not by any means a discouraging one, contains the following paragraph:

According to the last minutes there are 518 vacant churches in the large and vigorous synods of New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Indiana, and Michigan; not all vacant from their own feebleness, but presumably largely from that cause. We find there are 354 churches in these synods that have less than thirty members each. It is useless to try to belittle the picture by saying the New York synod has 804 churches, while it is confronted with twenty-nine vacant churches, or seventy-five with less than thirty members; or that Pennsylvania has 1,059 churches, with 180 vacant and eighty that have less than thirty members each.

There must be a cause for this. It is not because the Presbyterian church is declining, because it is not, for the church is stronger to-day by fifty thousand than it ever was before. A statement is made that "the serious obstacle that stands between the pulpit and the natural source of supply, is the iron-bound creed relating to God's eternal decrees," which, in theory is that sinners are assigned to an eternal hell on the principle of foreordination and predestination, for the eternal glory of God.

But this can hardly be the cause of so many vacant pulpits, for the fact is that this old dogma is practically a dead letter in the Presbyterian book of faith, and from the pulpit of that church as well as from the pulpits of other churches, come the divine tidings of love, peace, and good will.

The trouble lies somewhere else. Other denominations whose creeds do not contain the old dogma of foreordination and predestination, are not much better off than the Presbyterians as far as vacant pulpits are concerned. In one prominent and populous denomination, there is a pressing need for over fifty ministers—not for small churches in the territories and the newer states—but for churches in larger towns and in cities of considerable size. Men of scholarship and good pulpit powers are in demand in all denominations. The churches can't get enough of them. Other professions—the legal and the medical for instance—are crowded in every town and city and hundreds are being driven to the walls for lack of business, but churches competent to pay liberal salaries are raising the Macedonian cry to young men of brains and Christian spirit, but the response is not equal to the needs of the churches.

It will be interesting to note the proceedings of the Presbyterian general assembly on the report touching vacant pulpits, and to watch the drift of discussion thereon.

A CASE OF DEEP DESPONDENCY.

A democratic paper fairly grinned with delight three days ago when it printed this editorial note:

It now develops that among other things that the late legislature did was to vote $50,000 for permanent improvements at the Waupun state soldiers' home, and the warrant has been drawn and signed by the secretary of state, but the treasurer says he has no funds with which to pay it.

A special state tax will, it is said, be necessary to replenish the empty cash box of the state.

Now that Governor Hoard has decided that there is no sort of need for an extra session of the legislature, and it further appearing that there will be no need of a special state tax, this same paper is almost beside itself. One day its indignation was something majestic because the people were going to be taxed to pay for an extra session in order to correct the blunders of the late legislature; and its over-flowing sympathy for the tax-payers on account of a special tax with which to replenish "the empty cash box of the state," was truly affecting.

But the indignation proved to be out of time, and the over-flowing sympathy was wasted. There will be no special session, and the cash box of the treasury has plenty of money in it with which to pay all current expenses of the government. This is a great disappointment to democratic editors. They are in deep despondency. They are disappointed. They are in a peculiarly strange and unpleasant situation. They displayed righteous indignation because an extra session was likely to be called; and now they are mad because an extra session is not needed. They fairly wept with sympathy because there was a possibility a special state tax might be levied; now they are vexed because the cash box of the treasury has so much money in it that there will be no occasion to levy a special tax.

Our democratic friends are in a bad way. The times are out of joint with them. Republican politics is running too smoothly to please them. And so far as our own state is concerned, the state administration will keep right on in the even tenor of its way, and every claim for current expenses of the government will be paid without delay or question.

Indications are pointing very strongly to an extra session of the legislature with important business to consider of various kinds. Democratic papers have for years told the people that the treasury of the state would run low on the policy that prevailed. While Governor Rusk was in the chair it was his pride and boast that no direct tax was levied for state expenses. It now looks as if Governor Hoard's administration would have the pleasure of dealing with a

CRAMPED TREASURY IN CONSEQUENCE OF GOVERNOR RUSK'S POLICY.

This paragraph appeared in the editorial columns of the La Crosse Chronicle on the 23rd inst. Now that there will be no extra session and no special state tax, neither of which will be necessary, what does the Chronicle think of itself as a political prophet?

The Sentinel: In 1873 President Grant pardoned all deserters from the regular army. Since that time, although our army has averaged only about 25,000 men, the number of deserters has reached about 45,000. It is reported that President Harrison is about to issue another general pardon to them possibly on the principle that if they are not occasionally relieved of their disabilities they will become numerous enough to organize and take possession of the country.

A California philosopher evolves the theory that the many divorces in that state are due to the coldness of the climate and the high price of coal. In the evening, he says, it is so chilly that the husband and wife can't sit down comfortably as they do in the east, and with coal at $15 a ton they afford to use it. So the husband gets into the habit of going out for a walk in order to keep warm, and the wife often gets into the same habit. Divorces soon follow.

Progress is still on the royal highway. Experiments have been made in a Pittsburgh iron mill in the use of pulverized coal, and if further tests verify the remarkable results already obtained, the refuse or slack will become the most valuable output of the mines. It is claimed that 4,000 pounds of iron were drawn in an hour, with a charge of only 700 pounds of refuse coal, costing less than 50 cents per ton.

Proceedings have been instituted in the courts at La Crosse for final settlement of the estate of the late C. O. Washburn. During six years, in the hands of administrators, the estate originally inventoried at $1,828,317.36 has made a net gain of $1,012,138.72. This piece of excellent business management is not common among administrators of large estates.

Sam Yip Jah, the Chinese laundryman of Milwaukee, charged with assaulting little children, has been found guilty, and will likely go to Waupun for twenty or thirty years. A competent laundryman can find steady employment in the state prison.

The Chicago Times gives Mr. Cleveland this kindly notice: "When ducks decline to swim Mr. Cleveland will decline to run for office. It seems a little early for him to begin, but in consideration of the magnitude of the job ahead of him he is wise in taking time by the forelock."

Mr. Cleveland is very lucky in one thing. He has made a considerable portion of the democratic party believe that he is the only man in the party.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mrs. Percy, wife of the captain of the American ship Standard of Bath, Me., is now making her twelfth voyage around Cape Horn on her husband's vessel.

Mr. D. L. Moody, the evangelist, and his family, are back at their home in Northfield, after an absence of eight months. His plans for the summer indicate that he will be busier than ever.

Mrs. Garfield is said to enjoy an annual income of $21,000. Her total wealth is estimated at $440,000, the most of which came from the Cyrus W. Field fund. It is invested principally in real estate and government bonds.

In a speech to the students at Yale the other day, Chancellor Duggan made the characteristic remark: "What makes this class of '93 so famous is that half of its members went into journalism and praised the other half."

Mrs. Harrison, according to a Washington correspondent, keeps on the mantle of her boudoir a photograph of the amiable mother and daughter who preceded herself and daughter at the white house. It is a picture taken several years ago only for private circulation, and never allowed by Mrs. Cleveland to be sold.

Tsun Ywo Yin who is to succeed Chan Yen Hoon as Chinese minister to the United States, is not as wealthy as his predecessor, but is much livelier. In fact, he would be called "one of the boys" in this country. He is short, thick set, and extremely affable, with a great fondness for the gentler sex. He speaks a few words of English, but is clever and will soon have command of our language. He has traveled in Europe and is a well read man.

"Just Hear that Child Scream!" said Mrs. Smith to her sister, Mrs. Davis, as the sound of a child's shrieks came across the garden from a neighbor's house. "What kind of a woman have you for a neighbor? Does she abuse her children?" "No, indeed," replied Mrs. Davis. "She is one of the most tender mothers in existence. But you see, she believes in the old-fashioned style of doctoring. When a child needs physic, she fills a spoon with some nauseous dose, lays the little victim flat on her lap, holds his nose till he is forced to open his mouth for breath, when down goes the dreadful mess. Then come the yells." "No wonder," said Mrs. Smith. "Why doesn't she use Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Purgative Pellets? They are effective without being harsh, and are as easy to take as sugar plums. I always give them to my children." "And so do I," said Mrs. Davis.

An Eastern Rajah. Had a ruby which lighted his place at night. More precious than gems are beautiful teeth, which light up the face for state expenses. It now looks as if Governor Hoard's administration would have the pleasure of dealing with a

FORTY-FIVE INJURED.

TRAIN WRECKERS CAUSE A FRIGHTFUL ACCIDENT.

A Passenger Train Derailled and the Cars Thrown Over a Deep Embankment—Eight Men Crushed.

St. Louis, Mo., May 25.—The St. Louis & San Francisco train which left here at 9:15 Thursday night was wrecked at a point three miles west of Sullivan, Mo. Forty-five persons were seriously hurt and not a passenger escaped injury of some sort. It was 11:25 p. m. when the accident occurred. The train was traveling at a high rate of speed and most of the passengers had already gone to sleep, while the few remaining awake were about to do so. There is a curve in the road about three miles west of Sullivan, and when this point was reached a sudden jolt and jar was felt all over the train. Everybody felt it, and the people in the rear cars could hear the forward coaches rattling and tumbling over the ties and the crushing noises of cars being demolished. A creek is crossed by the road at that point and there is a steep embankment thirty feet high. Most of the passengers thought that the train was going through a bridge, and a feeling of horror chilled their blood. In an instant all the coaches, except the two sleeping cars had been thrown from the rails and were lying about in the cars in all directions, and some of them were thrown from the coaches and down the embankment. One man, Walter Davidson, who travels for the Westinghouse company, was thrown right out of a window on the opposite side of the coach from which he was sitting and sent rolling down the embankment to the edge of the creek. His feet were in the water. Another passenger in the same coach was thrown from the rear end of the car to the forward end. The train proper was made up of a mail car, an express car, baggage car, a smoker, a ladies' coach, a reclining car, and two sleepers.

Behind the sleepers were attached five empty coaches of the San Antonio & Arkansas Pass road. The front trucks of the first sleeper jumped the track, but the rest of the car remained on and the rear sleeper and empty coaches behind it never left the track. Fortunately there were no fires in any of the cars and the jolt extinguished the lights immediately. Otherwise a conflagration would have been caused; and there is no telling how many lives might have been lost. As it was, the passengers were not seriously injured, but many were smashed into smithereens.

The cause of the accident is not fully determined. The explanation given of it by the trainmen to the passengers was that the spikes and rails had been removed from the rail at the curve, thus leaving the rail too loose on the ties. The forward portion of the locomotive passed the place of right, but the tender jumped the track and was thrown part of the way down an embankment. Who removed the spikes and plates is not known, but the supposition is the work of the train men who were wanted to hold up the train. On the train was a large body of physicians returning from Springfield, where the State medical convention is being held, and they rendered valuable assistance in caring for the injured. Among the latter was Dr. Russell, who received very serious hurts.

Following is a list of the injured: P. S. WILKES, Waverly, Mo., both legs broken, may lose one of them. GEN. S. SIMPSON, Hancock county, Illinois, shock and cut on left side of face. F. A. O'DAY, aged 7 years, fracture of skull, will probably die.

Mrs. KATE O'DAY, bruised about the head, neck and side, injured internally. MARTIN O'DAY, cut and bruised about the face, also cut on the right foot and bruised about the breast.

JOHN E. HOLLOW, Cuba, Mo., lower portion of the right side bruised and cut in the forehead. Mrs. MARY HARRIS, Bloomington, Ind., bruised on left side and severely shocked.

C. W. PHILLIPS, Springfield, Ark., fracture of arm and cut on right shoulder. DR. D. RUSSELL, Tuscarawas, Ohio, severe flesh wound, ear torn off, and a cut in the head; severely shocked, but is rally. His wife also cut in the head.

B. H. NEWMAN, Cuba, Mo., cut in the mouth. D. R. HAYES, New York, arm and leg broken. D. W. GRAY, Marshall, Mo., arm, leg, and back bruised.

JOHN KENDRICK, Smith, Ark., bruised on the forehead. JOE HARRIS, Cuba, Mo., cut on the head, bruised on the chest, and cut on the arm and shoulders.

WALTER DAVIDSON, St. Louis, cut on the head and hip bruised. J. B. RALLY, Rolla, Mo., bruised on the leg and arm.

B. B. MCINTOSH, St. Louis, bruised on the shoulder and side. J. O. MORRISON, Richmond, Mo., cut on head slightly.

EMMA PATTERSON, Decatur, Ill., face bruised. Mrs. W. J. WRIGHT, Decatur, Ill., badly bruised.

M. LERO, St. Louis, bruised on the shoulder, side, and back.

MARY O'DAY, wrist cut slightly. E. J. SHAW, Durango, Col., bruised on the shoulder and slightly cut on the forehead.

SAVON MARK, St. Louis, slightly cut and bruised on the side.

J. J. BRINTON, Sparta, Mo., cut on the head, right arm, and left leg.

J. C. HOVELL, Litchfield, Ill., cut and bruised on the head, shoulders, and hip.

C. W. CHASE, Galveston, Ind., bruised on the foot and arm.

E. L. CONE, Breast, Mo., cut on the head and bruised on the back and shoulders.

THE DRAINAGE BILL PASSED.

The Amendments Adopted by the Illinois House.

SPRINGFIELD, May 24.—The crisis in the history of the Chicago drainage bill was reached Friday morning, when the Senate amendments came up for concurrence in House.

The usual lobby that has been present on every occasion at which this bill has been under consideration was on hand in full force, and the greatest interest was manifested in this, the final struggle. Mr. Allen of Scott, the leader of the opposition, moved that further consideration of the amendments be postponed until Monday next. Mr. Cochran moved to table the motion to postpone. The vote was 99 yeas to 38 nays the motion of the gentleman from Moultrie prevailed and the motion to postpone was tabled.

Without debate Mr. Baker promptly moved the previous question and upon a viva voce vote the motion prevailed. "The clerk will call the roll upon the concurrence in the Senate amendments," said Speaker Miller, and without further delay the last round in the memorable legislative contest began. From the very beginning it was apparent that the opponents of the bill were to be badly worsted. By a vote of 95 yeas to 37 nays the Senate amendments were concurred in. After the applause of victory had subsided, Mr. Crafts formally moved to reconsider and his motion was promptly laid upon the table. Thus the measure which is to solve the great drainage and waterway problem has passed through the ordeal of legislation and only awaits the signature of the Governor to become a law. The friends of the bill do not doubt that the signature will be forthcoming at the proper moment.

The Senate bill appropriating $8,000 to erect a monument in memory of Illinois soldiers on the battle field of Gettysburg was read.

The Secretary of State reported the amendments of that body to the Sheridan driveway bill of Mr. Baker. Concurred in. The House refused to concur in the Senate amendment reducing the appropriation of the Kankakee insane hospital, and the bill was ordered to conference.

On motion of Mr. Buchanan the rules were suspended for the purpose of taking up the Military Code bill on third reading. It failed to pass, receiving 29 yeas and 83 nays.

In the Senate the House bill providing that all females heretofore sentenced to the State Prison shall be sent to Joliet, and providing for the transfer to the Joliet penitentiary of all female convicts now confined at Chester, was passed.

The House bill making appropriation of $50,000 for the ordinary and contingent expenses of the Illinois National Guard, was passed without opposition.

A message from the Governor announced the appointment of James Bottom, of Randolph county, to succeed himself as trustee of the Southern Illinois Hospital for the Insane at Anna.

The House bill providing for the erection of an asylum for insane criminals at Chester, and appropriating $95,000 therefor, was passed.

The House bill (Mr. Wells authorizing horse and dummy railways to change their motive power, which was once sent to third reading and reconsidered, again came up on second reading. After a lengthy debate, the bill was again advanced to third reading without amendment.

The House bill making an appropriation of $8,000 to indemnify Sophia L. Hicks for damages caused by the removal of the canal commissioners of a dam at New Haven failed to pass, 21 yeas and 122 nays. The Senate then took a recess to 3:30 p. m.

JUSTICE SPEEDILY DISPENSED.

Burglar W. H. Dorsey Begins a Four Year's Term at Waupun To-day.

Three Days After His Crime Was Committed He Dons The Stripes

"No use asking him whether he's guilty or not. That's his coat he's got on now," said C. C. Howard as W. H. Dorsey stood before Judge Paterson this morning to answer to the charge of burglary.

Dorsey evidently thought so himself. At his request District Attorney Malone had filed information in the case. When he was called before the bar he promptly entered a plea of guilty, and Judge Paterson announced that the sentence in the case would be imprisonment for four years in Waupun.

All that Dorsey denied was that the coat he had on was Mr. Howard's. He had bought it, he said, three years ago. Mr. Howard identified the coat positively, but told Dorsey he could take it along. The coat, and a testament presented to Dorsey by Constable Edwards, were about the only bits of personal property the colored house-breaker took with him when his journey to the penitentiary began.

In the complaint Dorsey was accused of taking clothing, a writing desk, money and pies from the house of C. C. Howard about 2 o'clock Thursday morning. Later he broke into the shop of G. H. Austin and made off with an overcoat. When captured Thursday forenoon he was hidden in a tobacco shed calmly munching one of the pies. Owing to a technical error all the proceedings in the case were gone over again. Complaint was made; a warrant issued, and the examination being waived, information was filed at once. J. B. Doe, Jr., was appointed counsel for the defendant. Three hours after the warrant was served Dorsey was on his way to Waupun in Sheriff Babcock's charge.

HUNTING FOR HIS PARENTS.

A Romance of the California Gold Fever Comes to Light in This City.

Searching in Janesville For Traces of His Parents or His Lost Sweet-Heart.

There seemed little of romance about the bronzed and bearded man who stepped from a St. Paul train a day or two ago in this city. His garb showed he was from the west, and the lines on his face told that time had dealt with him none too gently. He was well on towards middle age, and spoke with the decision of a man who felt thoroughly able to take care of himself
